Standard Precautions for Infection Control

|
Hand Hygiene	Gloves	Mask and Eye Protection	Apron	Uniform
• before clean procedures • after soiled procedures • before and after patient contact • before and after contact to the patient environment • before and after use of gloves	are requierd with contact to: • biological hazards (blood, feces, urin, etc.) • medicine and chemicals	are requierd: • to protect eyes, nose and mouth at risk of splashes or sprays in the face • during aerosol generating procedures	is required: • if there is a risk of splashes or sprays to the uniform • direct contact to the patient, patient equipment or the patient environment	is required for staff: • with patient contact • who perform clean procedures • who perform soiled procedures
Medical Equipment	Body Fluids	Larger stains of body fluids	Laundry	Waste
• must be cleaned between every patient • must be cleaned and desinfected at visible contamination	• must be disposed in a washer-disinfector or a macerator • container with thickener must be disposed as general waste • smaller amounts of body fluids must be disposed as general waste • larger amounts of body fluids must be disposed as risk waste	• larger amounts of body fluids spilled, must be cleaned immediately • the spot must be desinfected after cleaning	• must be handled as potentially contaminated • must be put in laundry bags • soaked laundry bags must be covered with a plastic bag	• must be handled as potentially contaminated • collect waste in disposable bags • medical waste and risk waste must be handles according to guidelines

Jeanne Badino
July 2025